★ EUROPEAN ORDER 19TH CENTURY

QUADRUPLE ALLIANCE:

Britain, Russia, Austria, Prussia

HOLY ALLIANCE:

Austria, Russia,

Prussia → conservative

VIENNA SETTLEMENT & CONCERT OF EUROPE

- Development happened after Napoleonic war
- War victors creating new order → post war settlement
- 1814-1815 CONGRESS OF VIENNA
 - ↳ Worked very well
 - ↳ negotiations focused on restoring balance of power, monarchies + suppressing revolutionary movements
 - ↳ Final act: established new territorial boundaries
 - ↳ Congress system: conference w limited participants
 - ↳ only great powers can join

UK
Austria
Russia
Prussia

prevent another hegemon

UK
Austria
Russia
Prussia
France

• The Principle & mechanisms of Vienna Settlement

- ↳ Balance of power → agreed upon = maintain status quo & stability in Europe
- ↳ Each states monitor each other's development
 - ↳ competitiveness maintain stability
 - ↳ ex. one country developed their military power, other countries see → copy
- ↳ New territorial arrangement to create relative BOP
 - ↳ Balance of power "manually managed"
 - ↳ Contrast to "mechanical" balance of power
 - ↳ naturally emerges

→ The influence of the Age of Reason made statemen perceive balance of power as → operations of universe
↳ great clockwork

→ France retained its former military

↳ Countries made France satisfied w the arrangement

↳ fear of another France hegemon

↳ Let France enjoy collective leadership / collective hegemony

↳ BUT France had to pay war reparation within 5 years

• New European arrangement

↳ Holy Roman Empire abolishment

↳ German confederation establishment : 300 states → 39 states

↳ not too weak / too strong

↳ Put Austria & Prussia w each other → make them competitive

↳ balance of power

↳ France agreed w the arrangement → believed it made no one control territory perfectly

• States tried to contain France through Congress of Vienna

↳ not to be challenged by House of Bonaparte

↳ not successful, they became ruler again mid 19th

↳ 1815-1818: Duke of Wellington Command
