

FRENCH REVOLUTION AND ITS IMPLICATION TO EUROPEAN ORDER OF THE 19TH CENTURY

Asst. Prof. Teewin Suputtikun

International Relations Department

The French Revolution

- How did it affect Europe's international relations?

Short & Long terms

- . . . The domination of France and French Empire
- . . . The emergence of common transnational problems ___ required collective actions to cope with

- What kind of solution did the European Powers employ to create post-war (Napoleonic War) order ?

The Concert of Europe

- . . . What was its purpose? _ What was its key features?

The French Revolution (1789)

The Causes

- Economic problems in F.
 - . . . Fiscal bankruptcy from
 - _ Frequent involvements in warfare
 - _ Inefficient tax & banking system _ tax exemption
- Enlightenment ideas
 - . . . Transform ancient regime to modern one
 - . . . Constitutional monarchy & Republicanism
- Social change _ self-assertion of middle class
 - . . . Participatory government
 - . . . Meritocracy
- Unpopular monarch _ exuberant court
 - . . . Louis XVI . . . Marie Antoinette

June 1789

The Tennis Court Oath

The Storming of the Bastille

July 1789

Demand was for reform before things turned violent.

From reform to revolution (1787-1789)

- 1787 __ Assembly of Notables

Purpose: Tax reform to increase state's wealth

- 1788 __ Estates General (convened 1789)

1st estate: Clergies / 2nd estate: Nobilities / 3rd estate: Commoners

Abbé Sieyès _ What is the Third Estate

“... the middle and lower middle classes (bourgeoisie) of Europe were more educated and prosperous than ever before (in the late 18th century)” _ Adam Watson

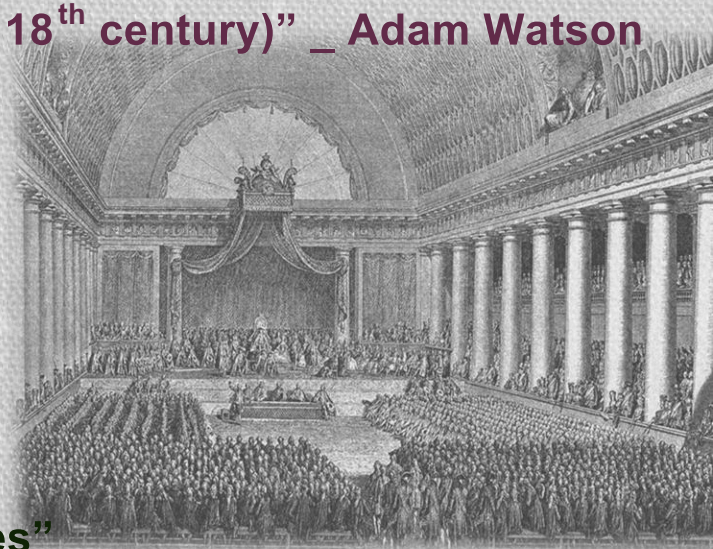

“ Two important and successful western states,

Britain and the Netherlands . . . had ceased to be ancien régime societies, governed by an absolute prince. They owed their power and success largely to the contribution of the trading and professional classes”

Jun 1789 __ Tennis Court Oath (National Assembly)

Jul 1789 __ Storming of the Bastille

. . . “Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity”

. . . First flow of émigrés

Aug 1789 __ Renunciation of Noble Privileges

__ Declaration of Rights of Man & Citizen

1791 __ Flight to Varennes

. . . Public losing trust for the King

__ Setting up Legislative Assembly

1792 __ War of French Revolution

__ F. became Republic

__ Maximilien

Robespierre

Jan 1793 __ Execution of Louis XVI

- National Convention
- Jacobin v. Girondins
- Sans-culottes

☐ Reign of Terror (1793-1794) (Committee of Public Safety)

- . . . Executions of political enemies
- . . . 1794 Robespierre was executed by the guillotine

☐ The Directory (1795) — Abbé Sieyès (Director in 1799)

- . . . Face with oppositions from the Royalists & the Radicals
- . . . Rely on the army for defense — Napoleon Bonaparte's role

☐ Napoleon staged a coup d'etat (1799)

- . . . Consul system
- . . . ruled as the First Consul (1802)
- . . . then made himself the Emperor (1804 – 1815)

“He was the condottiere of the revolution;
and . . . he wanted, and secured for himself, absolute power.” _ Watson

Performance Legitimacy

-- Enlightened despot --

- Gain popular support from French people
- Become the symbol of political ideology _ revolution
- Initiate reforms / civil code or Napoleonic Code (1804)

“ In a society which had overthrown traditional authority, and where government depended to some extent on popular support, good government provided a degree of legitimacy; and Napoleon provided good though autocratic government.”

“The symbols and slogans of the revolution evoked new loyalties, especially in France but also to some degree outside it”

The Age of Revolution & Nationalism

Patriotism – new kind of army

. . . Through Levée en masse [national conscription]

“The revolutionary armies were recruited by general mobilization: men said and believed that to die serving one’s patrie was too noble an act to be left to mercenaries like those who served kings for pay.” _ Watson

- France became a hegemon transforming the European order
/ the map of Europe

. . . Imperial system

. . . Established concentric circle of empire

Direct rule – Dominion – Hegemony

MAP TO ILLUSTRATE THE DOMINION OF NAPOLEON I., (IRRESPECTIVE OF OCCUPIED TERRITORIES) AT THE TIME OF HIS GREATEST POWER.

Struthers & Co., Eng'rs, N.Y.

- Empire : “At the center was the area of direct administration, which he continually expanded beyond the previous boundaries of France until at the height of his power it stretched from the Baltic to Rome”
- Dominion : Indirect rule
“In the area of his dominion Napoleon set up satellite kingdoms and principalities. They were ruled on his behalf by members of his family, his military marshals or local kings and princes.”
- Hegemony : Influence and dictate their external behavior
“Austria and Prussia were great powers; but Napoleon succeeded in bringing all the rest of the empire” under his control.
“Beyond the area of dominion or indirect rule lay an area of hegemony, comprised of independent states like Austria and Prussia that had hitherto been reckoned as great powers, and Scandinavia.”

1812

Empire of France

States under Napoleon's control

States allied with Napoleon

States against Napoleon

How did France spread nationalism in Europe?

- France exported the idea of republicanism and revolution

Republicanism as opposed to Absolutism, Monarchism

. . . Sovereignty belonged to people _ Fraternity, Patriotism

- Many states resisted the foreign rule __ French Empire

☐ 1814 _ Napoleon lost the war with the 6th Coalition

. . . Sent into exile in Elba

. . . The victors started to discuss about a new order

. . . Restoration of King in F.

☐ Mar 1815 _ Napoleon was back in Paris for a hundred day

. . . A Hundred Days' War _ F. army v. the 7th Coalition

. . . Napoleon was defeated in the Battle of Waterloo

. . . Sent into exile at Saint Helena

